THE CELEBRATION

Today's Doctors

Hana and Ruth are the reason the boat is leaving the dock with this much ceremony. The assignment is simple: celebrate them well, keep the day easy, and get the group photos before anyone gets lake-hair too serious.

Captain's Welcome

Welcome aboard. Today is for sunshine, lake air, ridiculous photos, responsible drinks, and giving Drs. Hana and Ruth a sendoff that feels like Seattle showed up personally.

Captain: Mintay

Doctors: Hana + Ruth

Dress code: Boat cute

Toast Moment

Near Leschi, pause for a quick toast: one favorite memory, one future wish, and one official doctor-behavior compliment.

Tiny Lake Hint

During the Leschi window, a small ripple may appear in the plan. No spoilers. Stay reachable and look alive.

Boat Day Itinerary

10:45 AM

Depart Fishermen's Terminal

Cast off from Ballard and head east through Salmon Bay, Fremont Cut, Lake Union, Portage Bay, and the Montlake Cut.

10:45 AM - 1:45 PM

Outbound scenic ride

Relaxed water-only route toward Lake Washington and Leschi, with slow/no-wake areas baked into timing.

1:45 PM

Dock near BluWater Bistro / Leschi

Main mid-day stop. Keep bags tidy, phones close, and the group coordinated around the dock area.

1:50 - 3:00 PM

Starbucks walk and meeting window

Quick walk across Lakeside Ave for the meeting, then back to the dock. This is the only land segment.

2:30 - 3:30 PM

Stevie's lake-window

Keep this flexible and coy. A small water-side cameo may line up near Leschi, so keep one eye on the wake and one eye on the group chat.

3:30 - 7:00 PM

Lake Washington celebration hangout

Main party block: cruise, snack, take photos, toast the doctors, and float only if conditions and captain are comfortable.

7:30 - 8:30 PM

Inbound run to Fishermen's Terminal

Return via Union Bay, Montlake Cut, Lake Union, Fremont Cut, Ship Canal, and Salmon Bay.

8:30 PM

Boat returned

Unload personal items, collect trash, thank the captain, and leave the boat clean.

Weather Snapshot

THURSDAY

78

SUNNY HIGH

Warm, bright, hoodie-at-night friendly.

NWS forecast for Downtown Seattle calls for sunny conditions with a high near 78 and calm wind becoming northwest around 6 mph in the afternoon. The broader Seattle forecast says highs in the mid 70s to lower 80s, with light wind becoming northwest around 10 mph. Thursday night brings more clouds and a small late-night rain chance after the boat is back.

- ☐ 2-3 cases seltzers
- ☐ 1-2 bottles tequila
- ☐ Mixers, limes, sparkling water
- ☐ Red Solo cups and a marker
- ☐ Plenty of water bottles
- ☐ Electrolytes or Liquid I.V.

Easy Food

- ☐ Chips, fruit, crackers, popcorn
- ☐ Wraps, sliders, or sandwiches
- ☐ Paper towels and napkins
- ☐ Trash bags
- ☐ Cooler space for drinks first
- ☐ Light restock plan around Leschi

Boat Comfort

- ☐ Sunscreen and extra sunscreen
- ☐ Sunglasses, hats, towel
- ☐ Swimsuit or splash-safe clothes
- ☐ Light hoodie for the ride back
- ☐ Phone charger or battery pack
- ☐ Speaker and downloaded playlist
- ☐ Dry bag or zipper bags for phones

Leschi Food + Restock

Nearby options while the boat is waiting near BluWater. Check hours, availability, and status before relying on any single stop.

BluWater Bistro | Leschi Market | Pablo y Pablo status check | Daniel's Broiler | Starbucks Leschi

Fun Assignments

Photo Checklist

- ☐ Doctors in gowns
- ☐ Captain + doctors
- ☐ Dock arrival
- ☐ Lake Washington group photo
- ☐ Sunset return photo
- ☐ Cheers photo with Seattle/Lake Washington behind it

Boat Day Awards

- ☐ Best boat-day fit
- ☐ MVP snack bringer
- ☐ Playlist captain
- ☐ Most likely to become a lake person

Safety Reminders

- ☐ Boat operator stays sober
- ☐ Use cans or plastic, not glass
- ☐ Drink water throughout the day
- ☐ Keep walking areas clear
- ☐ Respect slow/no-wake zones and docks
